

Presenting with Impact

About the Programme.

The impactful presenter does three things. They display high levels of confidence, they render information clearly, and they have the ability to 'wow' their audience. The goal of this programme is to give you the necessary skill-base to be an 'impactful' presenter.

The programme is a mix of interactive workshops (where you have the opportunity to work on a real presentation) and practical tools and techniques. During the programme you will receive personalised coaching and feedback.

Who should attend?

This programme is aimed at anyone who uses presentations in their business or enterprise. It has also proved highly successful for those who have an important presentation to make, and want the time and resources to develop the presentation effectively.

Oakwood Learning is happy to coach this course on an individual basis for those who do not want to attend the programme.
